Glutenfreeda.com invites you and your family to participate in an incredible gluten-free weekend that many of us only dream of. A luxurious weekend complete with spectacular gluten-free fine dining, two gluten-free cooking classes taught by the chefs from Glutenfreeda.com and all the amenities* of the exquisite Greenbrier resort in West Virginia.

This is an amazing opportunity in an extraordinary location! The historic Greenbrier offers world famous golf, tennis, swimming, a world-class spa, falconry, fishing, horseback riding, a culinary arts center and much, much more.

Check in on Friday and relax and enjoy a cocktail and GF appetizers at an evening reception hosted by the CSA/USA Chapter 100 in the Old White Lounge. Saturday morning take a walk through the breath-taking grounds or sign up for one of the many exciting activities offered by The Greenbrier. For lunch, Glutenfreeda.com will offer a fun and informative cooking class. Enjoy a delicious, gourmet gluten-free lunch in amazing surroundings! By mid afternoon we'll all take a break and relax at an afternoon tea with GF scones and a live concert, a Greenbrier tradition that dates back to the 1930's. Saturday evening the chefs at The Greenbrier will offer several menu items completely gluten-free for our guests. Sunday morning enjoy a breakfast cooking course complete with Blackberry Cream Cheese Crêpes, gluten-free muffins and other treasured gluten-free breakfast foods. Check out, on Sunday, is at noon, but you are invited to check your bags through the bellstand and participate in another Greenbrier activity like a horse-drawn carriage ride through the grounds or get in a round of golf. This is an experience you and your family will certainly remember and treasure for a lifetime!

If you and your family plan only one outing this year, this must be it! Visit The Greenbrier's website to fully grasp the magnificence of this resort, at www.greenbrier.com.
